Weird Canada [weirdcanada.com] is yet another music blog. It focuses on the bubbling Canadian underground existing outside of nowhere and heard by few. Simple layout, short reviews, and streaming music; a quaint view into DIY Canadiana.

Psychich Handhsake [myspace.com/psychichandshake] is a Montreal label responsible for subjeting the world to the wild sounds of The Nymphettes and Red Mass (ex-CBC Gangbangs). Psychic Handshake will be release The Wicked Awesomes! debut LP.

What brings them together is definitely not bowling. It's an appreciation for the wyrd, wyld, and wondyful music bubbling in Canada. It's a natural pairing. And, hey, who doesn't like bowling?

Saturday. September 5th. Weird Canada is (more than) proud to present the LP release party for Edmonton's notorious weirdos; The Wicked Awesomes! The spectacle will take place at Bonnie Doon Bowling Lanes. It will certainly be an exciting and bowlerific time. Show up early.

The Wicked Awesomes!

[Edmonton, AB] "The album lacks any pretense and obeys no boundaries; from burnt puke-garage to psychedelic mizrahi-surf, the red-lights on your stereo will burst with wrecked synth-lines and skirt-chasing guitar-riffery. It's a beautiful pawnshop display-case of wastoid-punk." [www.weirdcanada.com]

Myelin Sheaths

[Lethbridge, AB] "It's fun, it's rad, it's vaguely educational, and it sounds like absolute crud; fragmented distorto-thoughts oozing out of your nervous system in a ridiculous attempt to escape the cavernous spectral-noise" [www.weirdcanada.com]

Moby Dicks

[Lethbridge, AB] The Moby Dicks are Alberta's soon-to-be literary garage giants. A combination of weird-punk, psychedelia, and garage-revival, they will definitely leave their mark on the Terminal Boredom crowd. Get it now before it's too late.

Grown-Ups

[Calgary, AB] Their hit "grown-up" became my temporary teenage lo-fi angsty anthem; screaming and shouting and cartoons and underwear. I love it. Who are they? Where did they come from? I have no idea! But I'm willing to risk it all!

JAZZ

[Edmonton, AB] I have no idea who these guys are and they don't have a MySpace. How did they get in contact with me? They wrote me a letter! I am scanning the material the letter came with. Weird, man. Weird.
